

Valentines 2015

Encouragement Now!

February 2015

A Message of His Love

Praise Report!!

My honey and my Jesus gave me a beautiful miracle on my birthday, He was able to sit up in a wheelchair for the first time and got to go outside and saw and felt sun and blue sky for the first time in 7 months!!! You can imagine how blessed this gift is to me!! God is no respecter of persons! If you're in a storm or expecting miracles keep standing! What the Lord begins He will finish!

In Christs Love,
Reagan and Patti

Encouragement Now!
HEB, 3:13

Thank you for your prayer, love, cards, texts, and support!

You are in our prayers Daily!

This month we have what the world calls Valentines Day! A day were people try to show love through stopping and thinking about cards, candy, flowers, candlelight dinners, making a special occasion to show their love to one another. That's all wonderful! and Fun! I love making cookies for my grandbabies, buying special love shirts and candy for our children, all that fun stuff! Romantic dinners with my honey! But I have discovered that love is not just candy and gifts, love is commitment! First to the one that first loved me! Then to my wonderful, husband! Our awesome children and our beautiful grandbabies! Commitment to what, you might be asking?

First to my wonderful Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, My love to Him is obedience and faith in Him and to His Word! To bring Glory and honor to Him above any one or anything!

The next is commitment to be faithful to my husband, my best friend for now 45 Years! To be there for him, to honor and love him, to pray for him daily and encourage him, to know his likes and dislikes to make our home peaceful and full of Gods Word!

To our children, to try and be an example to our children of a mama that loves and is faithful to our God, to there Daddy, to them and our grand children, to be committed to pray for them everyday and in every battle they go through, not to judge them, but to try and let them know that I'm here if they need me! That I love them with all my heart and that my counsel when asked would not be based on my opinions but on the word of God! And for my Grandbabies! That they would know about Jesus as my Grandma taught me, how to know him, How to talk to him in prayer, to be in church and read the word, to know that no matter were there at in school, playing with friends or when daddy and mama or grandmas and grandpas need help that they will know that Jesus will always be there and whatever they ask Him by faith they will receive. That Jesus will always have their answers, they will never be alone! Heb.13:5

Commitment to people in my life, to be committed to treating all people with honor and respect, remembering that they aren't perfect, just as I am not either, that hopefully, I can encourage them in my walk with my Lord, that I don't have a religion with my very precious God, but a relationship with him, hopefully that they would desire the salvation and hope that I have in my life, the joy and peace of knowing I can trust him in every storm heartache or decision I need to make in my life. This love is all wrapped up in 1st Corinthians 13!

Have A Blessed Valentines Day!

Remember the greatest love comes from the Lover of your soul! JESUS! Matt.16:26

Greetings Precious Family and Friends in Jesus Name!

Time is going fast! Were well into this New Year 2015! And we are seeing God do spectacular things! He is so faithful! We pray this day finds you pleasing God! Heb. 11:6 the word tells us it's impossible to please Him without Faith! We walk by faith not by sight knowing Jesus already gave us salvation, healing provision and deliverance from the enemies' strongholds! As his word tells us in Psalms 23, He has set a table in the presence of our enemies! And on that table everything has been given to us! Every Blessing and Promise from our Heavenly Father! It's like thanksgiving when the whole fancy meal is set for the family! They can eat as much or as little as they desire, or even none of certain things that don't appeal to there eyes or that as we've grown up we have seen relatives not eating certain things for what ever reason they demonstrated there dislike of that certain dish on the table so they just pass it by and now we have grown up with the same like or dislike! That's the way it is today as Christians! The Lord made it all and gave it all! To all who would receive it!

As you walk thru your daily life pleasing the Lord with your faith, trusting Him for everything He has given to you! You may find a place that you may be having a hard time believing and receiving! The enemy brings thoughts of condemnation or discouragement to you and if your not eating off that table by faith he can snare you to the point of quitting. But I'm here to encourage you in that there is no condemnation in Jesus! Did you get that? There isn't any condemnation in Him! Rom 8.1 If your walking in His Word, another words if your renewing your mind daily in His Word, and being a doer of His Word, you will overcome these attacks!

When there is pain or words swirling around that are evil and discouraging and it seems that God is so far away, let me encourage you to put those lies, those evil thoughts, down, The Word tells us to cast them down! Like a fishermen if you have ever cast or thrown your line out into the water it leaves the boat and goes far out away from you. That's the way evil reports are to be done to, cast them away from you! 2 Cor. 10:5 and don't real them back in! Replace them with the truth! What the Lord says! Who's report are you going to believe? Are you in faith or has the enemy pulled you into reasoning and out of faith? Walking by what you feel and see?

As most of you know my husband and I have been going thru a large storm for the past 7 months with many feelings of pain, physically, emotionally, financially, relationally! And in the midst of all these negative reports, the enemy tries to get us to reason things out, like how could this be? Why aren't we out of this by now? What's going to happen? Why did you do this or that? You should have done this or that, or what kind of a Christian are you? And how can you be a light to your unsaved friends and family's? What if? It goes on and on until you determine who's report will you believe? Who loves you so much that He sent His only Son to Calvary on your behalf! And that wonderful Son Jesus laid His life down for you in His faith, To free the world from there sins and restoring them back to Gods original plan so that we have the blessings on that table to partake of! Freedom to believe what Jesus did! And Freedom to believe and receive every promise, every word and every blessing that has been given to us by the Father God; He has given us the free will to receive His son Jesus and Believe Him! To reject the lies, bad reports, the evil that Satan sends at us and replace it with the truth!

One of the things that we have learned in this storm is that the Lord never has left us and has not forsaken us! God cannot lie, so everything we have found is His Word that we have believed and received is coming to pass! He is so faithful! We live in a world that has so many deceptions, lies, and confusion that if we don't center on the author and finisher of our faith, then again the enemy try's to get us to think the way the world does, stealing our faith, keeping our mind on the storm is not faith, studying the report of the doctor or symptom or financial situation, whatever! Even studying on the name of what's attacked you in whatever part of your life is not faith! The real truth is JESUS the name above all names! There is not anything on this earth that has more power then the name above all names and no one or anything that has paid such a price to give you the answer in every situation! JESUS! Walking by sight gets us know were, but fear, worry, and confusion! We have responsibility as believers in a relationship with the Lord, and that is to hear and study, and be doers of the Word! Listening to other people that say they are Christians and yet stand against the word, telling us things that they picked up as children like the example at the table above, the person who dislikes certain things that we watched as a child or even as a believer and therefore now as an adult we do not believe. Let me encourage you that if you will get in the word yourself by faith asking the perfect teacher the Holy Spirit to show you the truth, it might just be what you need in the storm you might be in. I believe the Lord has much He wants us to know, but sometimes people would rather live everyday life without acknowledging the Lord His Word for direction and understanding, Let me encourage you that we don't have the answers without the Lord! Pro. 3:6

God Bless You and Yours!
In Christ's Love,

Reagan and Patti
Encouragement Now! HEB. 3:13